

BRIDGE SHOULD BE FUN!

So says Norway's Boye Brogeland, and he's a World Champion. If he didn't enjoy the game so much, he wouldn't play it. And he has his own ideas about how it should be played. He'd rather lose the world title by bidding a grand that goes down than be branded a chicken.

So get ready to follow him through the ups and downs of top-flight competition, as he encounters the proverbial thrill of victory and agony of defeat. This book is full of new bidding ideas, critical decisions, great cardplay, and roller-coaster excitement. It's never dull — it's bridge at the edge!

BOYE BROGELAND (Norway) has won both the World and European Championships, and is a regular participant in top-level North American tournaments.

DAVID BIRD (Southampton, UK) is the author of more than 100 books on bridge. His most recent include Defensive Signaling and the award-winning Planning the Play of a Bridge Hand (with Barbara Seagram).
